PREFACE.

The compiler submits the "Record" to the lineage of John and Elizabeth Campbell, as the result of several years of earnest and persevering labor. None but those who have experienced the perplexity in compiling a Genealogy can comprehend the difficulties. Doubtful and uncertain approximative data, absent and neglected records, questionable tradition, the neglect to answer inquiries and the indifference manifested by those supposed to be interested in a work of the kind, were embarrassments not seen or expected, but had to be overcome.

The task, however, has been accomplished, and to those who came promptly to the compiler's assistance, he tenders his thanks. Among them Asher M. Carpenter, of Linden, Pa.; Isaac W. Campbell, of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mrs. George H. Locey, of La Salle, Ills., and Mrs. Horace J. Parker, of Beaver Dams, N. Y., deserve special mention; yet others have kindly assisted, for which thanks are returned.

Where it was possible to obtain facts, a brief Biographical sketch has been embodied in the Record; where they are absent, no blame can be attached to the compiler, as he made every effort to secure material to make the book interesting—to invest it with something more than names and dates.

Of the list of those who were active in their life and time, many have passed away, leaving evidence of uprightness, virtue and integrity. May we emulate them and gather the fruits of their labor.
